

SCM201: Ross Supply Chain Management Setup and Configuration

Overview

This instructor-led course is designed to cover Supply Chain fundamentals and basic functionalities available in the Supply Chain Management suite offered by CDC Software. The course consists of the following modules: Demand Planning, Inventory/Replenishment Planning, and Advanced Planning and Scheduling.

Audience

This course is recommended for any customer who is a present or future user of one or more of the Supply Chain modules.

Prerequisites

None

Topics Covered

Demand Planning (DP) & Inventory/Replenishment Planning (IP/RP):

1. Understand the Ross SCM foundations.
2. Utilize the key features and benefits of the DP module.
3. Define DP terminology.
4. Perform a DP configuration, including setting up a DP for a sample business scenario.
5. Use the DP Interface basics and navigate within the module.
6. Build dataload files, including creating the input data required to setup DP.
7. Understand the benefits of the IP/RP module.
8. Define IP/RP terminology.
9. Configure the IP/RP module.
10. Use the basic features in IP/RP.

Advanced Planning and Scheduling (APS):

1. Identify the key features of the APS module.
2. Use the APS User Interface.
3. Understand a sample business scenario.
4. Set up and configuration of APS
5. Navigate within the APS module.
6. Set up an Inter-Plant Demand transfer.
7. Utilize the Blend and Pack feature

SCM201: Ross Supply Chain Management Setup and Configuration

Topics Covered, Cont'd

Course Structure

Due to diverse customer needs, this course has been structured as two sessions that are continuous and logically flow into one another.

The course is structured as follows:

Day	Duration (Hours)	Content	Cost (2 Days)	Cost (3 ½ Days)	Cost (1 ½ Days)
1	8	DP	$2,000.00	$3,000.00	$2,000.00
2	4	DP
2	4	IP/RP
3	8	APS
4	4	APS
APS ONLY					$2,000.00